At Lil' Chef Cooking Camp some of our youngest chefs get to learn all about the world of cooking!!! We are going to make main dishes, appetizers, and of course the greatest desserts on the planet. Campers will get to help make recipes and learn all about measuring tools that are used to create our meals. We will decorate some pretty tasty treats as well as work on our weeklong cookbook. If your child loves to help you out in the kitchen, then they are going to love cooking with us at Lil' Chef Cooking Camp. Please come dressed in "play clothes" since we are gearing up for a baking extravaganza that will come with a fun mess. Make sure to bring a bathing suit and towel on Friday for some water fun!!

Monday: Corduroy!! Today we are going to read the book Corduroy by Don Freeman. This is a children's classic that every child is sure to love. All of our recipes today will involve bears. From teddy bear treats to one super cute apron, this camp is great for those budding chefs that love stories and fun.

Tuesday: Pete the Cat!! Our focused book for Tuesday is Pete the Cat by Eric Litwin. Pete has a great time wherever he goes, and we will too. Today's recipes will revolve around our friend Pete. From groovy buttons to an Oreo cat, we don't want to spill out all of the surprises that are in store for our day of fun with Pete the Cat.

Wednesday: The Very Hungry Caterpillar!! Every child should read the book The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle. In this book our caterpillar friend tries all sorts of foods. Today at Lil' Chef Cooking Camp we are going to cook with all different kinds of foods, from fruits and vegetables, to caterpillar cupcakes. Your child is sure to make some recipes that you will enjoy making as a family for years to come. Roll up your sleeves and jump in for some messy good fun.

Thursday: Llama Llama Red Pajama!! Today we are going to create some super yummy recipes that you could easily make at your next fun sleepover. From sugary to salty, from yummy to delicious, we have some pretty great treats planned up our pajama sleeves. We are celebrating the book Llama Llama Red Pajama by Anna Dewdney. Come join us dressed in your pajamas for a fun day of cooking and slumbering. (Please make sure that the pajamas are able to get a little messy. With busy little hands you never know what could end up on them. 😊)

Friday: Dino Day!! Today we are going to celebrate the books How Do Dinosaurs...? by Jane Yolen and Mark Teague. We are going to roll up our dino claws and dive into some fun dino surprises. From fruit to treats, we are going to make some yummy dinosaur eats! Campers will take home a fun recipe book with recipes for some of the yummy recipes we cooked up this week. We will also conclude our week of cooking by going outside in our bathing suits for some water time fun. Please make sure to send your little chef with a bathing suit, towel and apply sunscreen.
